Every campground faces unique legal and insurance challenges - and no one understands those challenges better than you.

This is your opportunity to have YOUR legal and insurance questions answered face-to-face with experts CARVC's legal hotline attorney, Christine Taylor (Goldberg Segalla) and Alison Herman & Mike Jones of Leavitt Hospitality & Recreation Insurance.

This pre-conference session is designed around the questions that matter most to campground owners, managers, staff, and any campgrounds of any size! Whether your questions involve the new ejection bills in NC & SC, agreements to support those ejection bills, insurance coverage, employment issues, seasonal campers, risk management, contracts, emergency preparedness, or another legal or insurance concern, we want to hear from you.

Our goal is to make this your session—focused on practical solutions, expert guidance, and real answers to the challenges campground owners face every day. Come prepared to learn, ask questions, and leave with valuable insights you can put to work in your campground from experts in the legal and insurance industries.

Submit your questions by completing the form below or using the ONLINE survey. Please submit all questions by January 9, 2027, to ensure they can be addressed during the session.
